OPEN Speaker Meetings:

Meetings of this type are open to alcoholics and their families and to any member of the community who is interested in solving a personal drinking problem, helping someone else to solve such a problem, or simply learning about AA. The only request is that of not disclosing the names of A.A. members outside the meeting

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; courage to change the things I can; and wisdom to know the difference...
